Subject: Aldicarb

DDG – We just had the aldicarb team meeting; RD didn't show up. But Amy brought up that she's seeing some e-mail traffic around suggesting that we might want to consider waiting to finalize any of our documents until we get comments back on the NOR – due next week? Have the DDs discussed this? She said she thought they were getting significant comments, so I'm wondering if that would be a good idea? Something senior managers might discuss and let us know? Thanks. Mike
